PENISTONE AGRICULTURAL SHOW

Tickets are valid on the day of the show only
A pass-out stamp is required for re-entry

Plan your journey in advance and arrive at the Showground in plenty of time. Remember to travel safely and keep up to date with guidance on safe travel, car sharing, and public transport.

Come prepared for changing weather. Please check the weather forecast and bring a suitable raincoat or umbrella so you can continue to enjoy the show in all weathers.

Always maintain good hand hygiene whilst at the Show – use sanitiser dispensers provided always before eating and after touching animals, and avoid touching your face or handles and fences whenever possible. If there are issues with sanitiser points or hand washing facilities, please inform a member of stewarding staff.

Please be patient when entering and leaving the Showground and listen to the advice from stewards.

Penistone Agricultural Show reserves the right to exclude any visitor that fails to comply with this Code of Conduct. Thank you for your support and understanding. Please stay alert, follow these guidelines, and help us all enjoy the Show safely.

Penistone Agricultural Show does not accept any responsibility for personal injury or damage to Property, or any other loss, damage, costs and expenses, however caused.

Penistone Agricultural Show reserves the right to refuse admission or remove any person who is in breach of or fails to conform to the Society's rules or regulations.

Filming, photography and broadcasting takes place during the show at the Venue. You give your express consent to the use of your actual or simulated likeness and voice in connection with the production, exploitation and advertising of the show without compensation or credit, throughout the world.

For security reasons, visitors may be subject to extra searches of their bags. Thank you for your co-operation and patience.
